

The Church of the God of Perfection... to know Jesus Christ and to make Him known...

And we have the word of the prophets made more certain...

The highest calling... that of a servant.

Seven years ago a vision for a school in Kilbitè was birthed. We started out with 18 kids and two teachers. A miracle out of nowhere? Not hardly. God's intentions and provision have been clearly seen from the start.

Very faithful and generous Christians saw God's intentions and helped make The School of the God of Perfection what it is today. A sanctuary... to learn, to be fed, and to worship. A place where the foundations of faith and life are built.

Today, 19 staff and 98 students from kindergarten to 6th grade enjoy learning and life together. We are blessed with growth!

To maintain this ministry takes tremendous faith and cash flow. Salaries, food, and other operating expenses for the school alone total over $6000 per month. God's Mercy to Haiti is financially supported entirely by your donations. Every gift matters! Please prayerfully consider a generous one-time gift and/or monthly support.

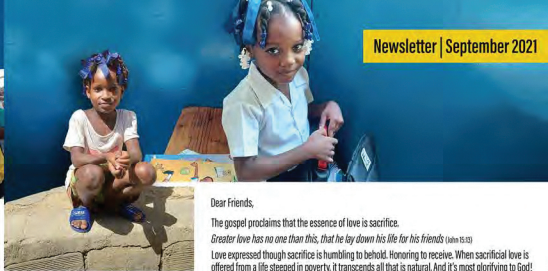

From the students, staff, and everyone in Kilbitè, Haiti... Thank you and God bless you!

Dear Friends,

The gospel proclaims that the essence of love is sacrifice.

Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13)

Love expressed through sacrifice is humbling to behold. Honoring to receive. When sacrificial love is offered from a life steeped in poverty, it transcends all that is natural. And it's most glorifying to God!

Camose is blessed with two children, Stephanie 17, and Widly 14. Widly recently graduated at the top of our 6th grade class. Camose cannot afford to send him to the 7th grade. God provides... Widly's education expenses for this year are being covered by a long-time supporter of God's Mercy to Haiti. Stephanie came to faith in Christ eight years ago. God used Stephanie's faith as a conduit for the Holy Spirit to save her mother.

Camose was raised by her mother, Tanatan, a voodoo priestess for decades in Kilbitè. But over the past nine years, The Church of the God of Perfection has been breaking the ranks of the local voodoo culture. Camose and her children bear witness to the power of the Holy Spirit breaking a generational curse. Meet Jenny. An adorable and intelligent 8-year-old orphan. Jenny's biological mother had abandoned Jenny to her older sister. Seeing that Jenny's sister could not care for her, and in spite of her poverty, Camose has lovingly accepted Jenny as her very own.

Not having the resources to send Jenny to school, Camose came to our leadership and asked if Jenny could attend The School of the God of Perfection. That was an easy one. Of course!

While not officially on staff, Camose is eager to pitch-in at school and church. She also helps with the clinic that ministers in Kilbitè. Her life-long commitment to Jenny is the supernatural response to the sacrifice Christ made for her. Not to earn God's love, but because of His love.

It was satisfying watching this family all worshipping together in chapel on the opening day of school. We are thankful to God for Jenny's future.

And it all started with Jesus.

Camose's Christianity is a living parable to the call of the redeemed.

Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God--this is your spiritual act of worship (Romans 12:1)

This family is not alone. God's love continues to multiply throughout Kilbitè. We rejoice that the chain reactions to Jesus and His gospel are so impactful to so many. The Lord blesses Kilbitè! For from Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all things!
